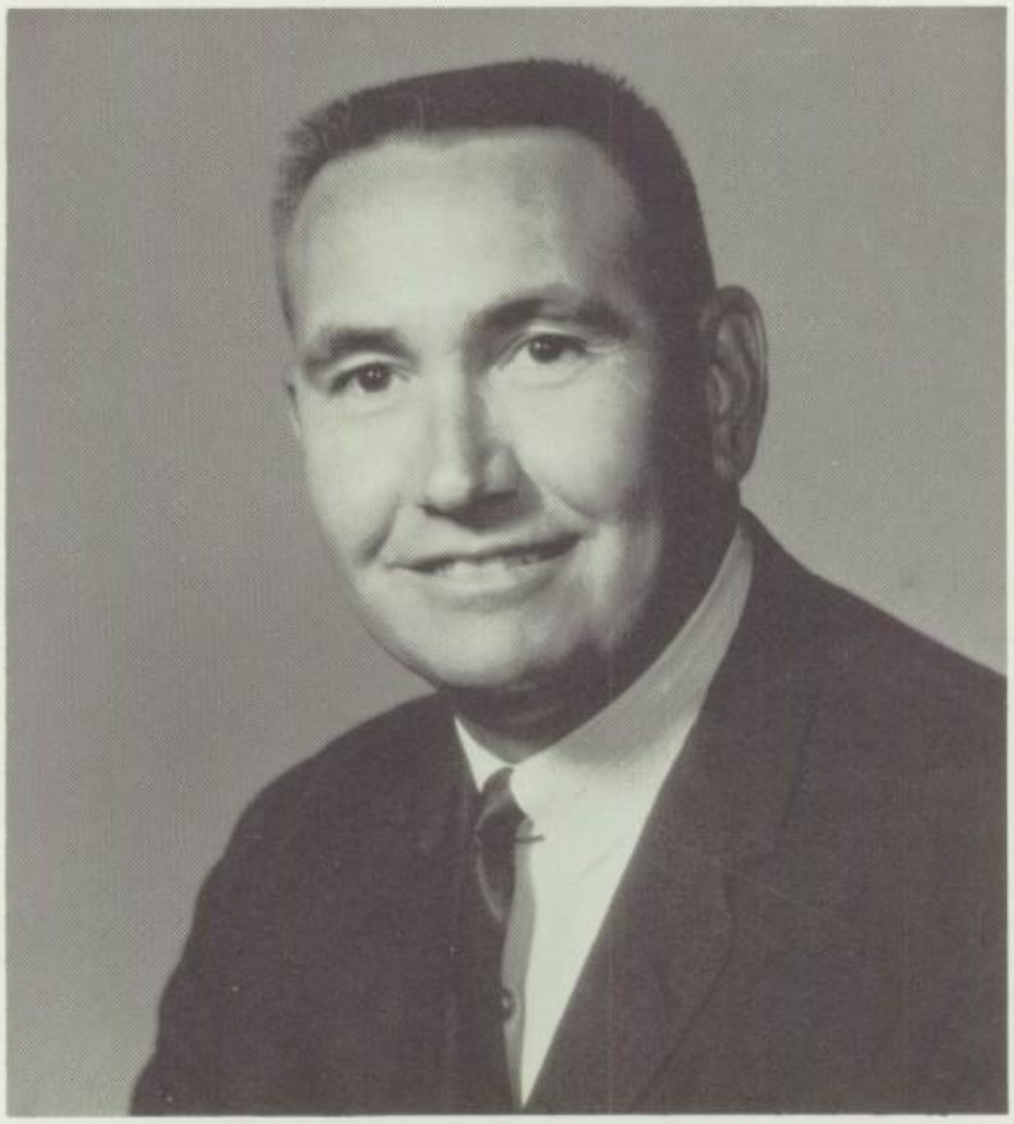
SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Welch Public Schools



B.S., M.S., Kansas State College

DELBERT LOVELACE
Superintendent

The year 1967-68 promises to be a most memorable and progressive school year for Welch Schools.

New building plans at Welch School have included the construction of a new bus garage for the maintenance of school buses. Work has begun toward the building of a new junior-senior high school.

Over the past ten-year period, Welch School has increased the credit offerings to our students from 24 to 40 1/2 units of study.

The people in the Welch community are to be complimented on the fine support that is so necessary for a good school.

Sincerely,

Delbert Lovelace

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1968, being of sound and strong body, in most cases, do declare and ordain this our first and last will and testament. To the Juniors, we leave the old high school building. To the Sophomores, we leave our pictures in the Hall of Fame. To various members of Junior and Sophomore classes, we leave these valuable traits and abilities.

ROCKY MAXSON wills his hidden treasures, wherever they are, to Troy Reavis. Hint: It's not gold, Troy.
DEBBIE ABLE wills her ability to talk all day and never say anything to Donna Stewart.
DONALD AYRES wills his interest in the American Tobacco Company to David Broyles.
ELLEN BOOTH wills her support of the Hippie movement to Barbara Brown.
CAROL CLEVELAND wills her quiet disposition to Brenda Douglas.
BRENDA COLLINS wills her ability to run both the paper and annual staff and get her lessons in three weeks ahead of schedule to anyone who thinks they are big enough.
KENNY FUGATE wills his study habits to Mike Wolfe, knowing he has a good start.
DeANN GAMBLE wills her many unused "Brownie Points" to Gerald Lalicker, knowing he could use a few.
MARK GRIGSBY wills his good grades to Duane Lessley. Better luck next time, Duane.
NEVA HALL wills her relationship with Altamont's school to Rosie Sheffield.
RANDY HENRY wills his wild driving ability to Randy Bullard.
SHARON HUMPHREY wills her interest in college boys to her sister, Carol, knowing that Carol is just beginning to develop such an interest.
SUSIE HARRIS wills her love for love stories to Royal Haws.
FRANK INGRAM wills his banking experiences to Ricky Williamson. Change banks, Rick.
DEBBIE JINKS wills her quiet manner to Fonda Rogers.
RONNIE KAYS and BEVERLY PARKER will their ability to be together twelve hours a day, seven days a week, to Rosie and Ricky.
GENE KOGER wills his curly hair to Jerry Addington. Better get you some rollers, Jerry.
GRACE KUHNS wills her chaperone talents to Becky Templeton, with the idea that she could use some.
LINDA KIMREY wills her ability to go steady with an out-of-town boy and go with all of the town boys to Becky Templeton.
JANICE LIPSCOMB wills her pleasant relationship with her fiance to Vicky Williamson.
MOLLEEN MARIS wills her grace as a cheerleader to Toni DeWall, knowing Toni is already following in her footsteps.
DENA McCLURE wills her jar of honey that she uses for quick energy to next year's basketball team, what's left of it, anyway.
DENNY McCORD wills his many romances to Larry Collins.
BARBARA O'CONNOR wills all of her Miami boyfriends to Betty Knight.
SHERYL PALMER wills her great height to Robin Moreland, knowing he could use some.
DANNY PATCH wills his wonderful array of nicknames to Mike Hardin. You'd better start collecting a few, Smelvin.
JOHN SEAY wills his ability to shoot himself and live through it to Randy Oney. You'd better load your gun, Randy.
LAWRENCE SCHUMACHER wills his interest in the "Pink Panther" to Jerry Addington, since Jerry already knows where it is.
SHIRLEY TEAL wills her "perfect attendance" to Glenda Gamble.
GLENDA VAIL wills her ability to be the quietest girl in the Senior Class to Janice Fox. Better cool it, Jan.
ARTHUR WILLIAMS wills his great athletic ability to Gary Polson, knowing Ace is a cheerful giver and Gary could profit from it.
LINDA WYRICK wills her ability to be the biggest flirt in the Senior Class (and no one knows about it) to Linda Jones.

We hereby name Roy Bradbury and "Snap" Haire to be the executors of this, our class will.

Co-Authors: Sharon Humphrey, Dena McClure, Neva Hall, Donald Ayres, Rocky Maxson, and Mark Grigsby.
